

Daily Honolulu Press.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 5, 1885.

PROSPECTUS.

Many maintain that the day of weekly newspapers is past in Honolulu; that the people want their news and food for thought fresh with their coffee every day; and that the people are willing to pay for what they want. At the very nominal figure established as the subscription price of Honolulu Dailies, fifty cents a month, it must be borne in mind that six or seven hundred, or even a thousand subscribers is but a mere bagatelle toward the expense of conducting a newspaper. Our advertising rates are not such as would satisfy our Pacific Coast contemporaries, or in fact any but those who labor for the love of it rather than for profit. This paper will not be run for glory, but will be conducted on a sound financial basis and value received will be given to its patrons in every case. We believe that the independent elements in the community will appreciate and properly support a daily morning paper that is outspoken and independent in its utterances.

The DAILY HONOLULU PRESS will be published every morning, Sunday's excepted, for the proprietors, Messrs. L. T. Valentine and Arthur Johnstone. Mr. Valentine will be the responsible business manager and Mr. Johnstone will be the responsible editor of the paper. It will be the aim of the management to make the HONOLULU PRESS a newspaper in every sense of the word. The paper will contain twenty-eight columns including a daily average of from six to eight columns of local news, editorial matter and short pithy articles of general interest to the residents of the Hawaiian Islands. It will be made distinctively a family newspaper, and will endeavor to reach the interests of all classes of citizens without introducing the objectionable features of the newspapers of large cities.

The editorial department will be conducted in a candid, manly and impartial manner, and while political theories and public actions will be carefully probed, and in many cases, severely criticized, the utterances of the paper will be jealously guarded and not allowed to degenerate into abuse, or personal detraction. In the main, editorial articles will be short and always to the point; but in cases where the facts warrant and public opinion demands, fuller expositions of living issues will be given.

Our local department will contain everything of interest to the general readers of the islands and will include local notes from the other islands and general correspondence on local topics. This department will be made spicy and readable, and will, from time to time be interspersed with humorous local episodes. Full reports of all public events and social entertainments will be given and a just equivoque will be established among our various social elements for special news.

The shipping department will be made full and correct and special arrangements will be made for weekly corrected lists of foreign shipping. Full shipping notes of our inter-island traffic will be given, and the interests and convenience of shippers will be carefully studied and provided for.

Our advertising department will be conducted on liberal business principles in such a manner that the ends of patrons will be reached by placing their wants and desires before a majority of the reading public. Promptness and correctness in this department will be assured. Arrangements have been made with the proprietors of the Saturday Press to carry out all unexpired advertising contracts and subscriptions, which will be faithfully done. Collections will be made monthly and all bills against this paper will be paid monthly upon presentation to the business manager.

In conclusion, the chief aim of the HONOLULU PRESS will be to foster and protect Hawaiian interests while especial attention will be given to individual industries and plantation enterprises. We expect to merit the support of the community and respectfully ask the privilege of a fair trial.

Mistress: "I really cannot put up with your voracious appetite any longer, James. Why, even the beasts of the field know when they've had enough, but you never do." James: "Please, 'm, you never tried me."

Cannibal King to missionary: "I think that the best thing I can do is to eat you." Missionary (in earnest protest): "I do not agree with you, sir." Cannibal King: "Well, I mustn't eat anything that doesn't agree with me."

Artist friend (pointing to a sketch): "Say, Harry, where did you get this?" Harry: "Why, I got that out of my head." Friend: "Well, it's a lucky thing for your head that you got it out."

"I understand you've gone into farming," said the dentist to his victim. "How large a farm have you?" "Well, I've had four acres for the past week," was the painful response.
